If there was ever a year to put lights up on our houses, this is it. Now, more than ever, people need to see signs that point to Christmas. The Hope, Peace, Love and Joy of this season can do a world of good to a world that's kind of crazy. This morning, let's worship with the fervor of John the Baptist, lighting up the wilderness with his message of Who is coming. Advent has begun and we're expecting.
